

IT'S OPEN!

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Here are five easy ways to share this opportunity with students and families. Thank you for your help!

1. Information for your website or newsletter

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation seeks high-achieving high school seniors with financial need for its College Scholarship Program. The foundation provides recipients with college planning support, ongoing advising, and up to $40,000 per year toward their bachelor's degree. If you know any students who stand out for their exceptional academic abilities and achievements, persistence, leadership, and desire to help others, please encourage them to visit the Cooke Foundation's website to learn more. The application deadline is November 30, 2016. <http://bit.ly/2cQIMjR>

2. Post to your Facebook page

Do you know a talented high school senior with financial need? Encourage them to apply for the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation College Scholarship Program, which provides recipients with college planning support, ongoing advising, and up to $40,000 per year toward their bachelor's degree. The application deadline is November 30, 2016. <http://bit.ly/2cQIMjR>

3. Share on Twitter

Click to tweet this: Apply now for @TheJKCF's College Scholarship Program and receive up to $40,000/year! <http://bit.ly/2cQIMjR> #scholarship

4. Invite students and families to attend a webinar overview

Want to learn more about the College Scholarship Program and how to apply? At this webinar, Cooke Foundation staff will provide strategies for submitting competitive applications as well as review eligibility requirements, deadlines, and answer questions from attendees. Register here, or share this link on Twitter or via email.

5. Video overview

Share and link to this brief video of Cooke Scholars describing how the Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship has allowed them to work toward their bachelor's degree and provided additional opportunities for internships, study abroad, and graduate school funding.