

5 Ways to Share Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship

Here are five easy ways to share using tools that we all know. Thank you for your help!

1. Information for your website or newsletter

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation seeks outstanding community college students with financial need for its Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship. The Foundation provides up to $40,000 annually high-achieving students and recent alumni from community colleges or two-year institutions who will pursue bachelor's degrees at four-year institutions. If you know any students who stand out for their exceptional academic abilities and achievements, persistence, leadership, and desire to help others, please encourage them to visit the Cooke Foundation's website to learn more. The application will be open in early- to mid-October and close in early December. <http://bit.ly/1L8RrNB>

2. Post for your Facebook page

Do you know a high-performing community college student looking to transfer to a four-year institution? Does he or she have financial need? If so, please encourage him or her to apply for the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship, which provides up to $40,000 annually to community college students and recent alumni who will pursue a bachelor's degree at a four-year institution. The application will be open in early- to mid-October and close in early December. For more information, visit: <http://bit.ly/1L8Rwkr>
