Creating Your College Transfer List

Fill in the chart below with 10 colleges that you have identified as a match based on your research, categorize each school as "Reach," "Target," or "Likely" and write 1-2 lines about why you believe it is a good fit for you.

	Name of School Location	Percent Admitted	GPA and SAT/ACT Profile	Why it is a good fit for me
Reach Schools Your grades and test scores meet or fall below average profile and/or acceptance rate is less than 30%	Example: Northwestern University	23%	85% top 10th of class, 96% in top quarter SAT Reading: 660-740/Math: 680-770 ACT: 31-34	Close to a major city, medium-sized (9,000 undergrad), engineering major, Greek system, DI soccer, lots of theater opportunities
	1.
	2.
	3.
Target Schools Your grades and test scores meet average profile and acceptance rate is 30-60%	Example: Drexel University	55%	34% in top 10th, 65% in top quarter SAT Reading: 540-640/Math: 570-670 ACT: 23-28	Engineering co-op to get hands-on experience, major city, close to family, Greek system, DI soccer
	1.
	2.
	3.
	4.
Likely Schools Your grades and test scores exceed average profile and acceptance rate is more than 60%	Example: Providence College	67%	37% in top 10th, 66% in top quarter Testing optional	Small city, small school, close relationships with professors, has my major, DI soccer, Greek system
	1.
	2.
	3.			